

‘Call for papers’
NCoE workshop on active labour market policies and family friendly policies, Allinge, Bornholm, may 5-7, 2010

Dear friends –

This is a call for papers for a workshop on active labour market policies and family friendly policies, which the Danish wing of the NCoE in Empirical Labour Economics is organizing.

The workshop will take place at Strandhotellet, Strandpromenaden 7, 3770 Allinge, Bornholm, on May 5-7, 2010. Bus transportation from Bornholm Airport to Allinge will be arranged.

We welcome papers in all areas of the NCoE’s research portfolio, but we especially welcome papers within active labour market policies and/or family friendly policies. Work in progress will certainly be considered.

If you want to present a paper, please send it (or an abstract if no paper exists yet) to Michael Rosholm (rom@asb.dk) no later than February 1st, 2010. The Danish wing of the NCoE will cover the costs of the hotel and accommodation.

The program is intended to start with lunch on the 5th of May and end with lunch on the 7th. On the afternoon of the 6th, there will be a social/sight-seeing event.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have questions. We look forward to seeing you all.

Marianne Simonsen, AU, Lars Skipper & Michael Rosholm, ASB

The workshop site can be seen here:

www.strandhotellet.dk

